REIGNING CATS AND DOGS. Stephen Green-Armytage photos and Alice Higgins text spotlight Westminster Kennel Club's 96th annual dog show, in which springer spaniel Ch. Chinoe's Adamant James (2 c.p.) is best in show, and Empire Cat Club's 55th annual championships, resulting in Fanci-Pantz Petti Girl of Araho's (2 c.p.) 39th best. Kilarney's Dolly O'Day, Ch. Kilarney's Mrs. Dublin, Ch. South Bay Gung-Ho, 2 c.p. 28 F 16-17

WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT instructor Patrick Hemingway, son of novelist Ernest Hemingway, is charged by wounded bull buffalo in Tanzanian bush; animal snags rifle off his shoulder and carries it away. PEOPLE 10 Ap 72

NATIONAL AUDUBON SOCIETY is upset by report that Wilt Chamberlain has bedspread made of nose fur from thousands of wolves. Public information director Robert C. Boardman writes to Chamberlain, says, "... wolves could use a friend about your height and weight." PEOPLE 10 Ap 72

WILD SHEEP IN A WOOLLY LAND. Peter Hurd paintings accompany Virginia Kraft's description of New Mexico's Barbary sheep, introduced into state by rancher Joe McKnight 30 years ago and now one of most interesting game-animal populations in Southwest (6 c.r., f.c.r.). Barbary sheep is only imported big-game animal ever to be so designated by a U.S. game department. 26 Je 46-51

CONSERVATION GAP develops in Crosby family when 12-year-old Mary Frances kills 12-foot crocodile in Kenya by shooting it through eye with rifle. Her father, Bing, says he has too much admiration for animals to kill them during Africa trip. PEOPLE 4 S 38

CAIRNS, AUSTRALIA'S Russell Yeulett drives along near home when he sees what looks like a dead crocodile beside road, tosses it in back seat; when he hears its jaws snap, he heads straight for zoo. PEOPLE 6 N 51

AUSTRALIA

CONSUMER ADVOCATE Ralph Nader airs concern for threatened extinction of kangaroos on arrival in Australia but finds only smaller species are in danger; he criticizes Australian auto industry's safety standards, nets $20,000 in pledges. Prime Minister Billy McMahon takes dim view of raid, calls Nader a "professional pot stirrer." PEOPLE 17 Jl 48

AUTOMOBILE RACING

PLACE IN THE SUN FOR REVVY. Robert F. Jones profiles Peter Revson (20 c.p.) who is beginning to achieve fame as an auto-race driver and provide challenge to sport's heroes after eleven years. Revson is first American to take Canadian-American Challenge Cup series title, finished 1971 second only to Al Unser in total winnings. 10 Ja 60-66

COME BACK REAL SOON. Robert F. Jones recounts A.J.Foyt's (& car, c.cov.) win in Daytona 500, stock-car racing's biggest payoff and only major prize that Foyt had never been able to win. Race is marred by death of driver Friday Hassler (car, c.p.) in one of 125-mile races preceding 500. Cars, fan, Cale Yarborough, Bobby Isaac, Buddy Baker, Bobby Allison, Richard Petty, 8 c.p. 28 F 12

AL UNSER (p.) sits in Maurice Phillippe-designed car which he, Mario Andretti and Joe Leonard will drive in Indianapolis 500 for Parnelli Jones-Vel Miletich team. PEOPLE 20 Mr 48

ESCAPE TO THE DESERT. Milton Oleaga photoessay, Jack Tobin and Robert F. Jones text capture men and stripped-down dune buggies in 1971 Mint 400 near Las Vegas as off-road racing (brf. history) verges on becoming a big-league sport; 8 c.p. 27 Mr 24-29

RACY RED BEASTS AND KING KONG, TOO. Robert F. Jones reports on last annual 12 Hours of Sebring endurance race, won by Jacky Ickx (c.p.) and Mario Andretti in a Ferrari 312P (c.p.) after setting record 123.64 mph to gain pole during qualifying round. 3 Ap 26-27

HYDROPLANE DRIVER Bill Muncey enters 270-mile Del Webb Desert Rally near Las Vegas but quits after 200 miles with deep respect for land racers. PEOPLE 10 Ap 72

WHEELS OF FAME AND FURY: PART I. Jackie Stewart, with Peter Manso, provides diary of Grand Prix racing from March 3, 1970 to April 12, 1971 in excerpt from "Faster! A Racer's Diary." Stewart (2 c.p., f.c.p.) explains how speed feels to him; assesses risks of driving after '66 accident at Spa; describes death of friend Piers Courage in Dutch Grand Prix and drivers' efforts to make racing safer. 24 Ap 70-80

WHEELS OF FAME AND FURY: PART II: A CHAMPION FATED NOT TO REIGN. In excerpt from "Faster! A Racer's Diary" with Peter Manso, Jackie Stewart (p.) recounts death of friend Jochen Rindt (p.) during Italian Grand Prix practice in September 1970; assesses effect of Rindt's crash (p.) on his attitude toward racing, Rindt's wife Nina and own wife Helen (p.); emphasizes need for safer racing cars to minimize sport's risks. 1 My 40

OVER INDY ON A WINGDING. Heinz Kluetmeier photos and Robert F. Jones text survey new Indy racers which hug track and can use full engine power for most of lap due to wings and airfoils. Several drivers exceed 190 mph in practice and Bobby Unser qualifies with average of 195.937, breaking Peter Revson's 1971 record. Andretti, McLaren, Gurney, Parnelli, Lola cars, 6 c.p. 22 My 20-23

FAST SHADOW AT 5 O'CLOCK. Robert F. Jones profiles race driver Gary Bettenhausen (p.) who qualifies for Indianapolis 500 with four-lap run of nearly 189 mph and garners No. 4 starting spot; describes Bettenhausen's traditional USAC apprenticeship. MOT SP 29 My 76, 79

COUNTRY AND WESTERN singer Marty Robbins drives his 1972 Dodge in Talladega, Ala.'s Winston 500 stock-car race; car slips carburetor sleeve and he finishes at 190 mph though he is disqualified. PEOPLE 5 Je 62

SO THEY SAID, 'LET GEORGE DO IT.' HE DID. Robert F. Jones recounts Trans-Am champ George Follmer's (2 c.p.) upset victory for Porsche-Roger Penske over Team McLaren in Can-Am race at Road Atlanta. Follmer takes over for injured Mark Donohue and wins with only 48 hours practice. MOT SP 17 Jl 58-61

HE KEEPS ROLLING ALONG. Kim Chapin highlights Bobby Allison's (2 p.) victory in Dixie 500 stock-car race at Atlanta International Speedway; explains that men in their 30s dominate sport due to lack of fatalities and injuries among top drivers, additional driver expenses due to Ford and Chrysler withdrawal from NASCAR and controversy over appearance money. MOT SP 31 Jl 44

'YOU KNOW ME, AL' SAID JOE. Robert F. Jones highlights delayed Schaefer 500 at Pocono International Raceway where late-race confusion causes Al Unser (c.p.) to be declared winner, then dropped to third when USAC stewards proclaim Joe Leonard (c.p.) as victor; notes Roger McCluskey's defeat of Richard Petty in NASCAR'S Pennsylvania 500. 7 Ag 18-19

200 PLUS ON THE LONE PRAIRIE. Hugh D. Whall describes Bill Wigginton's victory over Raymond Beadle (c.p.) in National Hot Rod Assn.'s Western Conference world championship race at Albuquerque Dragway; describes Top Fueler class of car, racing procedure. Racer, c.p. 21 Ag 16-17

DRIVER BOBBY UNSER (p.) and guard at Milwaukee's Tony Bettenhausen Classic engage in pushing-and-yelling contest when Unser tries to get into pit area. He is upset when USAC officials apparently ignore his fastest lap, withdraws from race in protest, changes clothes and attempts return. PEOPLE 28 Ag 62

MARIO ANDRETTI (p.) drives Mini-cart around garage area of Ontario (Calif.) Motor Speedway after 189 mph practice lap before California 500. He later qualifies at 191-plus. PEOPLE 4 S 38

GETTING THE GOOD TIMES ROLLING. Kim Chapin examines mystique surrounding South Carolina's Darlington International Raceway where Southern 500, most grueling race of Grand National stock-car season, is held; finds race is popular because drivers are determined to conquer short straights and odd corners which have changed little since Harold Brasington built track 50 years ago; recounts Bobby Allison's victory in 22nd 500; 3 c.d., f.c.d. 4 S 52-61

THE BEST OF THE HATCH. Brock Yates describes Emerson Fittipaldi's easy victory in Rothmans 50,000, richest race in European competition history, at Brands Hatch (p.). Rothmans firm plans open auto race pitting best drivers in all phases of sport against each other, but most drivers are already committed to long-established, full-season schedules. MOT SP 11 S 85-86

WOODSTOCK ON WHEELS. Stephen Green-Armytage photoessay previews U.S. Grand Prix (5 c.p., f.c.p.) at Watkins Glen, N.Y. where Spirit of Woodstock prevails at country's most glamorous international motor race. Robert F. Jones profiles 1972 world driving champion Emerson Fittipaldi (f.c.p.), youngest (25) ever to hold title and describes his training through racing echelons in Brazil and on international circuit. 2 O 42-48, 50, 55

JACKIE STEWART DRIVES wife Helen (p.) around France's Ricard-Castellet Circuit in a Capri at race speed, reveals she now wants to go round in a 190-mph sports car. PEOPLE 2 O 64

RUNNING UNDER THE RAINBOW. Robert F. Jones highlights Jackie Stewart's (2 c.p.) U.S. Grand Prix victory at Watkins Glen with record average speed of 117.483 mph. Win is Stewart's 22nd in Grand Prix racing, just three short of late Jimmy Clark's record. 16 O 32-33

FROM SEA TO SPEEDING SEA. In excerpt from book "Sunday Driver," Brock Yates recounts Cannonball Baker Sea-to-Shining-Sea Memorial Trophy Race, an outlaw auto race which he and co-driver Dan Gurney won by completing run of nearly 3,000 miles from Manhattan's Red Ball Garage to Redondo Beach's Portofino Inn in 35 hours and 54 minutes. Polish Racing Drivers of America team second in 36 hours and 47 minutes; 2 c.d., f.c.d. 23 O 96-112

FOUR-YEAR-OLD Sparky Sipolt (p.), son of Louis Sipolt who is pit-crew member for Mario Andretti and A.J. Foyt, does not seem enthusiastic about being kissed by Miss Sparkplug Wrench after daredevil driving stint. PEOPLE 30 O 64

THE DAY THE KID WENT AFTER THE KING. Robert F. Jones focuses on Top Fueler drag-racing event at National Hot Rod Assn.'s World Finals in Amarillo: NHRA's youngest (18) champion Jeb Allen (p.) defeats three opponents before losing in semifinals to Clayton Harris who is beaten in final by Jim Walther. MOT SP 30 O 70, 73

MEET AT THE BORDER AND BOUNCE DOWN TO BAJA. Robert F. Jones highlights Parnelli Jones' (p., c.p.) second straight victory with Bill Stroppe in Mexican 1000, North America's toughest off-road race. Some 242 drivers enter in variety of vehicles for run over Baja California from Mexicali to La Paz and less than 100 finish. 13 N 28-30, 35

STOCK-CAR DRIVER Wayne Shugart tangles with Frank Brantley at Jacksonville Speedway, spins off track and out of second place. He asks NASCAR chief steward Bob Smeltzer if fine for fighting in pits is $100; Smeltzer says yes, whereupon Shugart hands him the money, then hits Brantley. PEOPLE 20 N 71

KUWAIT OIL SHEIK Kahlid Al-Nadji, known in racing circles as Ali Baba, sponsors driver Ron Grable (p.) in Riverside Can-Am but Grable's Lola T-161 spins out on 17th lap. PEOPLE 4 D 56

LOOK SLOW AND BE SET TO GO. Hal Higdon profiles Malcolm Garrett who was top street drag racer in Michigan City, Ind. until he became too well known in his milieu and left for Florida; describes ways in which Garrett hustled customers at Kniola Automotive, arranged races and made sure his cars looked deceptively slow; 5 c.d., f.c.d. 18 D 32-34, 37-38, 41-42, 47

TENNIS PLAYER Ilie Nastase (p.) holds rank of second lieutenant in Rumanian army but makes $75,000 a year, one of country's highest annual incomes, is planning new suburban home and wears hair long. PEOPLE 21 Ag 63

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA.'s St. Thomas Aquinas High School student newspaper will carry Chris Evert's byline. Her publications course requires working on school yearbook and paper. PEOPLE 4 S 38

NASTY HEADS THE BOOM AT THE TOP. Bernard Fuchs drawings and Curry Kirkpatrick text focus on U.S. Open tennis tournament at Forest Hills' West Side Tennis Club: Rumania's Ilie Nastase (c.d.) becomes first Iron Curtain champion of America by defeating Arthur Ashe (c.d.), win over Cliff Richey (c.d.) in semifinals; Billie Jean King takes her third women's title in final against Margaret Court. 18 S 36-38, 43-44

TENNIS PLAYER Rosemary Casals stops in Puerto Rico to meet cellist Pablo Casals; they agree it takes a lot of guts to succeed in either game. PEOPLE 16 O 91

BAD IS BEAUTIFUL. Curry Kirkpatrick profiles Rumanian tennis player Ilie Nastase (2 p., 6 c.p., f.c.p.) whose on-court antics alienate opponents but may be just the thing to remove barriers holding game back from total public acceptance and the big time. He is first Iron Curtain athlete ever to make such an impact on world sport and his potential is unmatched anywhere. 16 O 112-129

MR. SMITH GOES TO BUCHAREST. Jerry Cooke photos and Curry Kirkpatrick text highlight U.S. Davis Cup (c.p.) victory over Rumania in final at Bucharest's Progresul Sports Club. Stan Smith (f.c.p.) wins deciding Cup point for fifth straight year; he defeats Ion Tiriac (c.p.) and he and Erik van Dillen (c.p.) win doubles match as Ilie Nastase (c.p.) and Tiriac feud, lose their doubles contest. 23 O 22-25

THAT POOR LITTLE GIRL WINS THE BIGGEST NONPRIZE. Joe Jares reports that Chris Evert (p.) defeats Billie Jean King (p.) and Kerry Melville to win Boca Raton, Fla.'s Virginia Slims Championship, richest women's tennis contest in history; describes uproar as USLTA plans women's pro tournaments and Women's International Tennis Federation tour attracts top pros. TEN 23 O 86

O'ER THE LAND OF THE FEE. Frank Deford finds that World Championship Tennis' non-American pro players, lured on tour by big money, have varying attitudes toward U.S. and its customs as world balance of tennis power shifts and sport becomes more Americanized. Cliff Drysdale and family, Ken Rosewall, Roy Emerson, Nikki Pilic, Jeff Borowiak, Marty Reissen, Tom Okker, 7 c.p., c.d. 20 N 92

THE BALL IN TWO DIFFERENT COURTS. SPORTS ILLUSTRATED selects UCLA basketball coach John Wooden and tennis champion Billie Jean King (c.cov., f.c.p.) as Sportsman and Sportswoman of 1972 for accomplishments, symbolic importance to sport world. Curry Kirkpatrick interviews Wooden and King who discuss views on various aspects of sports. EVERYTHING BUT HANDSTANDS. Sheedy & Long photos and Pat Putnam text focus on Sunkist Invitational indoor track meet at Los Angeles Sports Arena where newly-confident Jim Ryun (f.c.p.) defeats Kenya's Kipchoge Keino by seven yards in mile run. Other victors: shotputter Al Feuerbach (67' 4"), hurdler Paul Gibson (7.1); 3 c.p. 31 Ja 12-15

GETTING UP IN THE WORLD. Jim Kaplan profiles Pat Matzdorf (2 p.), little known outside Sheboygan, Wis. though he set world high-jump record of 7' 6¼" at U.S.-U.S.S.R. World All-Stars meet in Berkeley, Calif. last July; describes Matzdorf's life in Sheboygan, family, practice sessions and competition he faces in Munich. 31 Ja 22

IF YOU'VE GOT NO MONEY, TRY DIPLOMA POWER. Roy Blount Jr. focuses on Adelphi U.'s Clyde McPherson, Dennis Walker, Keith Davis and Larry Ross (& Bazil, c.p.) who comprise world's best indoor mile-relay team under coach Ron Bazil. Group conquers poor track conditions, sets world record 3:12.22 for 11-lap track. TRACK 7 F 44-45

PLAYWRIGHT Garson Kanin, who dropped out of Brooklyn's James Madison High School in 1927, returns to receive honorary diploma; he shows students and teachers a cinder imbedded below his knee that he picked up during a track meet over 40 years ago. PEOPLE 14 F 49

IT JUST WASN'T IN THE STARS. Pat Putnam recounts U. of Oregon junior Steve Prefontaine's (p.) 8:26.6 victory over Belgium's Emiel Puttemans and Australia's Kerry O'Brien in two-mile run during L.A. Times Indoor Games. TRACK 21 F 52, 54

IT MAY BE SHORT BUT IT ISN'T SWEET. Pat Putnam describes Dr. Delano Meriwether's 6.2-second victory (c.p.) in 60-yard dash at Madison Square Garden's AAU indoor meet; describes difficulties at start of race and finish in which Meriwether hits tape first and is knocked down by Willie McGee. 6 Mr 20-21

CALIFORNIA INTERNATIONAL TRACK CLUB pole vaulter Sam Caruthers' wallet is emptied while he is staying in New York hotel. He hears thief, asks who it is and a voice, which Caruthers assumes is housekeeper, says "Just cleaning up." PEOPLE 13 Mr 46

IT'S BACK TO THE OLD DRAWING BOARD. Pat Putnam reports on Champions track meet mile at Los Angeles Coliseum where Tom Von Ruden (p.) clocks 3:57.8 to defeat flagging Jim Ryun (p.); reveals Marty Liquori's (p.) heel injury prevents him from competing. TRACK 13 Mr 57-59

THEY'RE SWEET 16 AND DESERVE A KISS. Pat Putnam highlights U.S. women's victory over Russians in track meet at Richmond Coliseum: Patty Johnson sets U.S. indoor record 7.4 in 60-yard hurdles; Martha Watson wins long jump with U.S. indoor record 21' ¼"; Wendy Koenig (c.p.) takes 880; Debbie Heald (c.p.) wins mile with world-indoor-record 4:38.5; Kathy Hammond takes 600 with world-indoor-record 1:20.5. Men also win for third U.S. overall title. 27 Mr 16-17
